VARSAITY.

ST. JOE 46—vs—PALMER MONITORS 11.

Jan. 19.—The merciless drubbing St. Joe handed Chicago only goes to show, that the long and persistent practice under our able Coach Stockton is beginning to bear its fruits. The first half was a mere signal practice, our opponents being unable to cope with the lightning speed and team work of the Varsity. In the second half the Monitors put up a better defensive game and several of their spurts, although not dangerous, certainly made the game more interesting. The adoption of the Intercollegiate rules proved to be a decided advantage for our husky quintet and adds greatly to the aggressive as well as defensive side of the game. Dribbling the whole length of the floor and then sinking the leather through the circle is another good feature of the new rules. Last of all our loyal rooters are not to be overlooked for their efforts in all and especially this game.

ST. JOE 56—vs—ST. CYRIL 11.

Jan. 25.—The Purple and Red managed to pile up their biggest score of the season, last Saturday against St. Cyril's. At no time throughout the entire game, did our opponents manage to keep possession of the ball for any length of time before the hide would be recovered by one of our men. The big score was due largely to Deery our lanky forward, who though playing a good game heretofore, in this game finally rounded back into his old form. He scored fourteen field goals, this number was never equalled by one of our Varsity before. Monahan, one of the reserve men, was given a trial owing to Moran's injured leg. He put up a very scrappy game and much is to be expected of him in the future. It is to be hoped that future games will be played against stronger aggregations because as yet St. Joe has not been really put to a severe test.

SENIOR LEAGUE.

IV. LATINS 14—vs—III. COM. 16.

Jan. 21.—The III. Commercials succeeded in keeping a clean record when they defeated the IV. Latins in an overtime game by the score of 16 to 14. Both teams put up a good game, but it is to be deplored that players will use such unsportsmanlike means to win a game, that they have to be put off the floor. We like to see every team go in to win, but we want them to do it in a fair way. It is better to take a defeat in the right way, than to win by using foul tactics. St. Joseph's has always had a reputation for clean basket ball and to keep this good name all rowdyism should be stopped in our leagues.

III. LATINS 12—vs—SENIORS 22.

Jan. 22.—The Seniors tied the III. Latins in the "big" league by winning a clean, hard fought game from the latter. Score 22 to 12. The III. Latins put up a good game in the first period and lead by two points at the end of the half. It looked as though they would keep their clean record in the first part of the game, but after the Seniors had hit their stride the III. Latins were unable to hold their own. Although the guarding of both teams was good, neither team was in form when it came to shooting, for many easy chances were missed that should have counted.

II. LATINS 22 VS IV. LATINS 21.

Jan. 24.—The IV Latins were again defeated by a very small margin, this time by the II Latins. The latter team was in the lead by seven points at the end of the first period, but by game fighting the IV Latins pulled themselves to within one point of their opponents; but unable to go around them. The score at the end of the game was 22 to 21. Annen was the main point gainer for the II Latins and it was due to his shooting in the last period that they won the game.

Academic League.

EAGLES 18—VS—SHAMROCKS 15.

Jan. 23.—After tying the score at the end of the first half the Eagles won the game with the Shamrocks. Good team-work of the Eagles was the feature of the game.

Junior League.

CARDINALS 19—VS—IMPERIAS 22.

Jan. 21.—In a very interesting game the Imperials succeeded in lowering the flaunting and daring colors of the Cardinals, while Reidelbach and Tiffin divided Imperial honors.

CARDINALS 16—VS—BLUE BELES 20.

Jan. 22.—The Cardinals bowed in defeat to the undefeated Blue Bells but they fought with a spirit that will keep any team in the home stretch of the race as the score, 16 to 20, shows. The guards of both teams did excellent work in the first half, but the four guards prove too elusive for them in the second.

LAURELS 30—VS—IMPERIALS 18.

Jan. 23.—The Laurels defeated the Imperials in a loosely played game, marked by the presence of many substitutes. The Laurels, although they received the long end of the score, were forced to use the greater number of substitutes. If hollering, while in the game, has anything to do with winning it, Silverstein of the Laurels should keep it up, for he with his big voice scored the big score of the game with 19 big points, while Tiffin and Reidelbach worked hard to keep their crippled team in the race.

IMPERIALS 7—VS—BLUE BELLS 23.

Jan. 25.—Since two of the regulars were out, the Imperials could hardly expect to conquer the undefeated Blue Bells, however, they made a hard and determined fight against such odds and held them to a score of 7 to 23. The Imperials regulars worked hard while the honors of the Blue Bells' victory belongs to no individual. The Blue Bells will have to warm up to their fastest gait if they wish to retain that 1000 pct. against such battles as the crippled Imperials pitched against them.

DOVES 13—VS—WRENS 2.

Jan. 22.—After loosing two straight games, the Doves sprang a surprise on the Wrens by taking them into camp to the tune of 13 to 2. Kanney and Cyr proved the best point gainers for the Doves, while Delor secured the one lone basket for the Wrens. In the second half the Wrens, by close guarding, held their opponents to one foul, but after Delor's basket were unable to score themselves.

LARKS 13—VS—WRENS 12.

Jan. 25.—In the fastest game of the season among the Minims, the Larks succeeded in administering another defeat to the Wrens. Although the score at the end of the first half was rather one-sided, the Wrens strenghtened, and in the second period brought the spectators to their feet time and again by their sensational playing. Gabel starred for the Larks securing seven of their thirteen points.

EDITORIALS.

On Jan. 26, a meeting of the student-body was called for the purpose of selecting the A. A. Board. McArdle, Deery, Lill, Harrington, Sindelar and Fitzgerald were elected by large majorities. It is well that such foresight was used in choosing men of such upright character and strong principles, for the many weighty problems that confront them are enough to try the nerves of any man.

The most important case is that of Mgr. Hennehan's proposed drafting and trading of several players. It is understood that if this deal is carried out, Hennehan's team will without doubt sweep the circuit and as a consequence much opposition is expected.

Next in importance is the protested game between the Owls and Larks. Some controversy has arisen over this game, hence the Board is looking forward to a long session.

There has been much talk of late, concerning the proposed athletic exhibition to be held sometime in the near future. Let all those taking part in the performance, do their best to make it a success for it is certain to be well received by all. The last exhibition of this nature was held four years ago and it was attended with much greater success than any other program of that year. It is to be hoped that greater interest be taken in these "stunts" and that we may have the opportunity to enjoy more of them during this year.

Gerwert, pulling away at his shoe, “I don't believe I'll ever get these shoes on till I've worn them a spell!”

Prof.— “Who was the first man?”

Stich.— “Washington; he was first in war, first in — ”

Prof.— No, no; Adam was the first man.”

Stich.— “Oh, if you're talking of foreigners, I s'pose he was.”

“When rain falls, does it ever arise again?” asked the professor.

“Yes, sir.”

“When?”

“Why in dew time — ”

“That will do Mr. Petzold, you may sit down.” 100

Irritable Prof.— “Now, then, stupid, what's the next word? What comes after cheese?”

Maloney.— “A mouse.”

Sasse says. “Soap and water are good for defeat.”

Instructor.— “Well, how stupid you are. Can't multiply eighty-eight by twenty-five! I'll wager Farrel can do it in less than no time.”

Whitcomb. — “I shouldn't be surprised. They say that fools multiply very rapidly these days.”

Hoetger. — “I think I have the chicken pox for I found a feather in my bed this morning.”

“Tiffin, what country is opposite to us, on the globe?” asked the Prof.

“Don't know.”

If I were to bore a hole through the earth, and you were to go in at this end, where would you come out? continued the perplexed Prof.

“Out of the hole” replied Tiffin, with an air of triumph.

Firchette.— “Pat, do you understand French?”

McGabe. — “Yes, if it's spoke in Irish.”
